

You will not be graded! Your answers will help us improve our program.
Be honest! Don't tell me what I want to hear; tell me what you believe and know.

1. I can tell by the way my parent(s) live that they are Christians:
 - a. Yes
 - b. Kind of
 - c. No

How can you tell?

2. I believe that God exists:
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
 - c. I want to believe, but I've never experienced God
3. Does the Church teach that in order to go to Heaven, you must be Catholic?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
4. As Catholics, we are allowed to:
 - a. Tell others that they are going to Hell
 - b. Say that a particular act is evil without judging a person's heart
 - c. Say that another person is evil because of their actions
 - d. Say that everyone can do whatever they feel is ok
5. When you go to Communion at Mass, do you believe you are receiving the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Christ?
 - a. Yes.
 - b. I want to believe, but it looks and tastes like bread and wine.
 - c. No.
6. The term "original sin" refers to:
 - a. Sinfulness into which all persons are born
 - b. The very first sin we commit
 - c. Judas' betrayal of Christ
 - d. The murder of Abel by his brother, Cain
 - e. None of the above
7. List the Sacraments of the Catholic Church:

8. Why are you attending Confirmation Preparation?

9. When someone receives the Sacrament of Confirmation, what happens to their soul?

10. To be a faithful Catholic, what must you do?

11. Do you find Mass boring?

- a. Of course
- b. Sometimes
- c. No

12. What is the Eucharist?

Thank you for helping us improve our program!

Sincerely,

Dominic Bruno, Coordinator of Faith Formation